The Fate of Doolittle

SOMETHING FOR TRUMBULL AND SUMNER TO THINK ABOUT.

From the Alta's Evening Journal.

The ... [illegible] ... Democrats ... Mr. Doolittle of Wisconsin. The announcement of the name scarce ... sufficed to fix the man in the public mind. And yet hardly six years ago he was one of the principal figures on the public stage. He was a distinguished member of the United States Senate. He was gifted with talents and with eloquence. In legislation and in debate he played a conspicuous part. Attached in earlier days to the Democratic party, he repudiated it when it attempted the Nebraska outrage, allied himself with the party of freedom, was ... [illegible] ... the Senate, and achieved a national fame ... endowed with much native force and ... [illegible] ... he filled a large space in the public eye.

In an evil hour for his own fortune he followed the wayward lead of Andrew Johnson. He deluded himself with the idea that the Republican party was to be divided, that the portion which went with the unfaithful President would have the support of the Democracy, and that out of this combination a new party would spring which would carry the country and control the government. Thus persuaded, he threw himself into the movement with a zeal ... [illegible] ... leaders ... [illegible] ... fortunes upon the ... [illegible] ... to stand or fall by the ... The result proved the fatality of his ... [illegible] ... The Republican party was ... A few men left it, but the party derived fresh strength and vigor from the attempt to betray it. [illegible] ... and his name is now rescued from the obscurity to which it was consigned ... only through these ... appearances on the Democratic stump.

In this movement Mr. Doolittle had a few associates in the Senate, of whom the most watchful and retentive observer of public affairs could now hardly recall more than two. Even the names of these two have almost passed from the public recollection. Yet both were men of ability, and Mr. Dixon of Connecticut had long been prominent in the politics of his State. ... From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, April ... About $3 ... have been ... [illegible] ... for the ... sufferers.

The Merchants' ... [illegible] ... that Mr. ... has been ... [illegible] ... has grabbed a ... for that port for the steamer ... which ... to-morrow.

The following mining companies were incorporated to-day: Deseret Consolidated Mining Company, capital $3,000,000, ... District, Utah; ... Consolidated, capital $4,000,000, Philadelphia District, Nye county, Nevada.

W. H. V. Cronise applied to-day in the Fourth District Court for an injunction to prevent the Board of Brokers from expelling B. F. Schmidt from the Board ... [illegible] ... for ... [illegible] ... the injunction to restrain him from paying the amount for which he is delinquent to Jasper McDonald on the Excelsior contract. The temporary injunction was issued. Schmidt himself is anxious to pay, but Cronise is determined that he shall not. The matter will come up for final hearing in Court on Saturday. In the meantime the committee have reported against Schmidt, and under the rules of the board he would stand suspended had not the Court been called on to interfere.

J. W. Brittan, of Brittan, Holbrook & Co., hardware dealers of this city, died in New York yesterday. He was a California pioneer and leaves a family here.

Northern continues flowing steadily.

Sales of stocks to-day aggregate 34,074 shares, exclusive of the new board and street operations.

Mark J. McDonald has been notified to appear before Judge Morrison of the Fourth District Court to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court in proceeding to report B. F. Schmidt as delinquent in the board pending the hearing of the motion for an injunction to restrain the board from compelling Schmidt to pay over the amount for which he was delinquent on Excelsior. Both parties are employing leading lawyers as counsel and the litigation will be expensive to somebody.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Eleven more Chinese gamblers were convicted or pleaded guilty in the Police Court to-day and were held for sentence. This makes 42 Chinese gamblers convicted within a week, and they pay $60 each. The American gamblers in the meantime have paid about $2,500 into the city treasury, and it is thought that with proper nursing this business may be made to pay for a long time, and perhaps yield sufficient revenue to avoid the necessity of the city issuing any more bonds for running expenses up to January, when the taxes become available under the new law.

Mrs. Burkhardt, who was shot by the barber Wilkinson last week, is reported barely alive, having never rallied since she was shot. It is a matter of surprise that she has lived so long, considering the nature of her wound.

Stocks closed decidedly weak in the board this evening, with some indications of a fall, but dealers predict that the decline will be brief, the feeling of confidence being too general and money seeking investment too plentiful to allow it to last long.

No mails are expected to arrive here from the east for a number of days, the last one this side of the snow blockade having arrived last night.

The names of the Committee of Safety of 100 citizens will be made public to-morrow.

The New York Times says: "In his declining years Mr. Greeley appears to think that he has squelched an adversary when he has given him a nick-name more or less childish and absurd."

Considerations on Civil Service Reform

A correspondent of the New York Tribune writes from Washington, giving his impressions of the movement for civil service reform. He thinks that the movement has begun in an impracticable and irrational way. His general remarks are prefaced with these common-sense statements:

"Any system of civil service reform that fails to recognize the demand which a political triumph creates will inevitably be a failure. For as has been before said, our history shows and reason sustains the position that a political triumph in this country does involve a general change of the office-holders, not only the principal ones—Governors, Senators, Representatives in Congress, Foreign Ministers, and such—but of the smaller officers now appointed throughout the country; and this is natural and reasonable. And as the people become more and more engaged in politics and more and more eager for the rewards of political service, if that be possible—so it is certain the spread of this sentiment will increase. The demand is of the political actors will become wider as well as more imperative. The attempt to resist this tendency is not in accord with the spirit of our institutions or the manifest institutions of our times. We are making progress toward a more lively intelligence, more activity of mind, more ardent and more universal competition, and to a greater equality of classes. And with this progress comes an increased urgency of demand for recognition among all grades of society. We may expect, therefore, that everybody is going to strive more and more after the prizes of life that come from heated political competition. The mass of the people, in becoming more enlivened, becomes more ambitious of the honors and emoluments of public service, and the old sentiment that was born when the few ruled the many—that politics were merely a game for high prizes for the privileged few—which has not died out even in this country, is rapidly on its way to total discomfiture and extinction. Even the lofty position of Mr. Trumbull and of Mr. Kelley of Pennsylvania, that they will decline to have anything to do with seeing to a fair distribution of the political prizes among the 'constituency,' will be crushed by the tread of the 'boys' behind them. Those who wish to be clerks, and Postmasters, and Revenue officers, and the special and general servants of the Administration, backed by their multitudinous supporters who yet youthful and vigorous await their own turn, will give these and all such Representatives to understand that the lower prizes of political struggle are of just as much importance to them as the higher are to their recipients; that, after all, though Mr. Trumbull and Mr. Kelley may be members of Congress, yet they cannot be allowed to isolate themselves from their supporters and hold that, having secured their own eminent share in the prizes of political life, they shall be at liberty to turn a deaf ear to everybody else. That sort of thing may be endured in obtuse and illiterate districts for a while, but it will not stand fire in the lively and bustling and combative constituencies of the country generally."

This is put with remarkable clearness, truth and cogency. It would be impossible to say anything that would add to its force. The justness of such observations must be apparent to all practical minds. But the writer goes on to say that "the outrageous habit of pitching public servants overboard in the summary manner now practiced without reason and without notice that would be given to a menial, is deserving of unqualified condemnation." The question then arises, "Since we must continue to have great and frequent changes in the personnel of political life, often dictated by the caprice of parties only, what safe and satisfactory rule of appointment can be found?" The writer answers it thus:

"Clearly that the great body of appointments shall be brought under the law of elections. It has long since been suggested that postmasters might be selected by the local constituencies, and Mr. Trumbull in the Senate debate revived the idea and advocated the adoption of such a practice. This is good so far as it goes. But the principle must be made of more universal application. Reserving the power of appointment by the heads of departments, as it now exists, if that be thought best, there is no reason why the candidates for nearly all the ... now filled by appointment should not be chosen and presented by the proper constituencies—not only postmasters, but collectors and under revenue officers, foreign consuls, and so on. Allot to every State and every Representative district a fair proportion of the officers that now are appointed, and allow the ruling party the selection of its candidates for appointment to the various places assigned to it.

This simple rule, honestly carried out, will settle at once and forever the whole vexed question of who shall be appointed to office, and settle it upon the best rule we have yet discovered for popular sway, that is, that the majority shall govern. There are no objections to this plan that cannot be easily answered, while the soundness of the principle on which it rests must be universally recognized. What is proposed is simply to furnish candidates for appointment. If they are unsatisfactory, the appointing power may reject them and require others to be presented. But the candidates shall not be, as now, furnished by the Representative in Congress alone, but shall be the selection of the people themselves, or, where they are divided into hostile parties, by that portion which represents the dominant party in the nation. A present and for a long time past, the great threatening difficulty of the Republican party has been a quarrel about offices. Men are appointed and men are turned out by the score at the dictation of members of Congress in districts where the local will is totally disregarded. This is most certainly a gross and offensive use of power, and it ought not in fairness and justice to the local population, to be permitted to exist a day. What immeasurable impertinence is it in Senator Conkling or Senator Anybody else to go into a rural district and seize upon a postmaster who is doing his duty to full public and party satisfaction, and is the choice of the vicinage for the place he fills, and throw him neck and heels out of office, and, adding insult to injury, supplant him with a henchman of his own, whom nobody wants. And what an outrage is it that a system exists which renders such offenses possible."

The conclusion of this most sensible and excellent letter is as follows:

"Every Congress district should have its share in the distribution of offices. There is no reason why the District of Columbia or the States of Maryland and Virginia and Pennsylvania, because of their accidental proximity to the Federal capital, should have five or ten times their proportion of the Federal offices, as in old times used to be the case and as in process of time will be again. And there is no reason why there should not be a fair allotment of those offices among the several Congress Districts on the ordinary basis of population. If the Democratic theory of government be sound, every Congress District is abundantly able to furnish perfectly suitable candidates for a great deal more than its share of the public offices, high and low. We went to a tannery for President, to a printing office for Vice President, to a school house for the General of the Army, to a colliery for a Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to none of the learned professions for either. And each and all are filling their several offices to-day with honesty and efficiency. We do not want any better illustration than this of the capacity of any 140,000 of our population to turn out fit material for such offices as an equitable distribution would allot to them. And why should it not be made? Is there any reason, except that a different and much more partial and wholly awkward and mischievous system has possession of the field? But we are talking of reform. Let us have reform in earnest. But let it be general, equitable and based on reasonable demands and immutable principles. Leave to the people themselves the settlement of the question vexing and perplexing theoretic reformers, and the solution will be found astonishingly easy and singularly permanent. So simple and just are the principles of the reform here proposed that when once established and in full operation, nobody will think of changing the fundamental principles of the Government itself and the practice under them for each will then be in harmony with every other, at least so far as public office and officers are concerned."

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS

The Louisiana Reform State Convention, called for April 23d, has been postponed to June 4th.

A convention of three persons in Roane county, Tennessee, last week, elected two delegates to the Cincinnati Convention.

Detroit will unveil its soldiers' monument on the 9th of April, the anniversary of Lee's surrender. Gen. Burnside is to be present.

A Western paper accuses a contemporary of "dirty measures," and remarks: "We want him to understand that two can play at that game."

The President has appointed ex-Governor Francis Thomas Minister to Rome. The New York Evening Post says the appointment is an excellent one.

A young Kentuckian who had been dressed to represent Santa Claus, at a church fair, was mistaken for a Ku Klux, and knocked over by a nervous gentleman.

The Massachusetts Labor Reform State Committee repudiates the protest of the Eight-hour League against the Columbus platform, and agrees to sustain the doings of that convention.

By the passage of a law in Illinois, "to secure all persons freedom in the selection of an occupation, profession or employment," women can be elected or appointed to any office, and may practice as lawyers. The law goes into effect July 1.

Dawes, Chairman of the House Committee on Ways and Means, on the 1st instant moved a resolution that the Senate by the Constitution has no right to originate a tariff bill, and on this he moved to lay the Senate tariff bill on the table. The motion was sustained by the House—155 to 9.

The National Executive Democratic Committee will hold a meeting in Washington early in May, after the meeting of the "Soreheads," at Cincinnati, to fix the time and place for the holding of the National Democratic Convention—which, it is supposed, will be the 4th of July, and at St. Louis.

A new Republican newspaper is to be started in Montgomery, Alabama, early in April. It will be called the Republican Sentinel, and its conductors promise to advocate zealously the election of the nominees of the Philadelphia Convention, and to look to the true interests of Republicanism alone.

Among the resolutions adopted by the Kansas Republican State Convention was this: "That we hereby denounce any man in public life who will dare to employ corrupt means in politics, and we will set our faces steadfastly against all such, and will endeavor to make the future of Kansas pure and good."

The New York Post (free trade) declares that the Chicago Tribune (free trade) "seems bent on destroying the Cincinnati movement," because it nominates Horace Greeley (protectionist) for the Vice Presidency. This gives an idea of the harmony of the elements which is likely to prevail at that "Liberal" gathering.

An anonymous address to the Republicans of Georgia has been issued, complaining of the action of a portion of the State Central Committee in appointing delegates to the National Convention, and urging great care in the selection of delegates to the State Convention, to be held by call of the same Committee in Macon, on the 8th of May.

A Sioux City editor refuses to quarrel with a fellow townsman of his who follows the medical profession "because," says the editor, "he would have us at a great disadvantage, as our imperfections are constantly before the public for criticism, while we have neither the time nor inclination to dig six feet into the ground to expose his imperfections."

A Washington dispatch of the 2d says: "The President and friends of the Administration are rather jubilant over the result in Connecticut, especially in view of such a victory in the face of the manifesto issued by Greeley & Co. The Democrats are disgusted, and assert that there is nothing substantial in their party or the dissatisfied Republican movement."

POLITICAL NOTES

The tenacity of Bourbon Democracy in Kentucky is illustrated by the fact that Gen. Pillow is its favorite candidate for Governor.

A Southern paper calls on the Northern Democracy to show their hands. Will not our Southern brethren allow time to wash them, first?

The St. Louis Democrat says there is no division in Missouri in the Republican ranks, and that there is no dissent from the general accord of the Republican press of that State. In the birthplace of the sportive possum that animal is practically and as really dead as it pretends to be.

The last Democratic national administration created a deficiency in every year of its term, and after raising a debt of sixty five millions, went out in a blaze of robberies, peculations and embezzlements. Will the people be misled by a few ... into ... again ... that party with the Government on the pretense that it is a party of reform. Will Trumbull, Sumner, Greeley and other Republican soreheads dare to advise the people to do so.

The Daily Oregonian

WEDNESDAY MORNING APRIL [illegible]

Oregon is Wooing

A rest[illegible] of outlet arr[illegible] on between the leaders of the [illegible] party and the managers of the Cincinnati side-show. The latter insist that the Democrats shall come [illegible] a body [illegible] and support their programme. They say to the Democracy: "You are [illegible] helpless [illegible] You can do nothing without our assistance. Now if you want us to help you out of your abject condition you must allow us to lead. You must let us have our own way. You must permit us to furnish the policy and the candidates and you must be content to vote as we require. We are in a position to dictate our own terms for you are helpless without us. And we will stand none of your old Bourbon Democratic airs or nonsense. Do what we require or be content to receive another defeat and with it annihilation."

Such is the tone held by the Republican Reformers toward the Democracy whenever the latter venture to ask anything for themselves. They asked for the active co-operation of the Reformers in Connecticut but got very little assistance, doubtless chiefly because the latter had little to give. In reply to the assumptions of the promoters of the Cincinnati movement many Democratic journals are beginning to declare that the terms of the proposed alliance will not suit them. The New York World flatly says that if the conduct of the anti Grant Republicans in Connecticut is to be "taken as a specimen of the courage and sagacity of the promoters of the Cincinnati Convention, the Democratic party ought to turn from them with scorn of their prudish imbecility." It also declares that "no man out of a lunatic asylum believes that the Cincinnati Convention will be anything more than a frail bubble on the surface of politics without Democratic support." Pursuing the same strain, the World adds: "It is ridiculous fatuity for the Liberal Republicans to insist that the Democratic organization shall be dissolved and its members merge into a new party with some cowardly name, whose adoption would be merely an unsuccessful attempt to conceal the truth."

This correspondence does not look much like a negotiation that will lead to a settlement. It is rather rough wooing. For acerbity this love making equals that of Petruchio and Katharine. We shall see what comes of it.

Certain Knotty Points

It is admitted by the New York Tribune that the hostility to Grant has not worked down among the people to any considerable extent. And the Chicago Evening Mail observes that mere dislike of Grant by soured politicians will not do for a platform. There never can be a victorious party until some great popular conviction creates, and a corresponding popular impulse holds it together. The masses are slow to back up personal spites. Mere recalcitrant malcontents they abhor. Breeders of strife they despise. The utter lack of other than newspaper enthusiasm in this movement is a lesson which ought not to be lost upon a sagacious politician. The man who said, "Let us have peace," is so far forth a popular man with the people. Nothing would disgust reflecting Democrats even more than to enter on an eternal squabble in regard to the past issues. While we may differ vastly as to the validity of many acts in theory, dislike profoundly the modus operandi of their existence, we don't want to stir things up again.

Right here is where the new movement is weak. To succeed it must secure the Democratic vote. The so called Liberals will be no more to the final issue than the organ boy in the loft who pumps wind for the organist. The people know that a defeat of the Republican party would be a Democratic triumph, even though the triumph were led by Greeley and Trumbull. It is true that in most of the States Democrats offer to regard the results of the war as accomplished facts, and to put through the substantial measures of the Republican party, but why employ men to do upon honor what they dislike to do, when plenty of men are standing round doing nothing, who would be glad to do the same thing because it is just what they like to do? These knotty points, says the Chicago paper above quoted, bother the masses very much.

A SAFE SAFE.—A new plan for rendering any kind of a safe burglar proof has been invented. It consists simply of a tin case neatly ornamented, into which the safe is placed. The case has double walls, made air tight. From the space between these walls all the air is extracted. The safety of the contrivance lies in the fact that the safe being closed the moment any air is let into this air-exhausted space, that instant an alarm is set going and raises such a din with its clanging bells and gongs, that it would be sure to raise the sleepiest of the seven sleepers and probably a policeman. This is done by electricity. A number of electricians, among them Professors Morse, Chandler, Prescott, Young, Gray, Barton, and others have certified that their skill is not equal to the breaking of the electric circuit without sounding the alarm. If the safe is unlawfully approached the alarm may be heard for twenty blocks. This seems to be one of those inventions which no amount of skill can circumvent.

Referring to one of our paragraphs the Herald inquires why President Grant tried to "take" San Domingo before he was authorized by the people of the United States to take it. A puerile question based on a false assumption. He did not attempt to take San Domingo. In pursuance of his constitutional power, or at all events of old precedents, he opened negotiations for its acquisition. Having carried the business as far as it was his province to do, he laid it before Congress for final judgment and action. This is the history of the San Domingo business in a nut-shell.

From the Washington [illegible] we have a doleful complaint concerning the "ascendant military spirit" over our Government. We are told that we are "enveloped with a military atmosphere unnatural to our American ideas," that the Chief Magistrate of the country has nothing to commend him but his military achievements, and that our rulers should be selected from civil life. It is curious to observe how exact a repetition all this is of the objections that were made against General Jackson.

Cable dispatches to the Chicago Tribune say that the Emperor of Germany has been reading the French Arms debate and is surprised at the use made about so small a matter. Bismarck joins the Emperor in expressions of a similar feeling, and his organs throughout the Empire [illegible]

The delegates from Chemeketa Lodge I O O F at Salem to the Grand Lodge are Thomas H Reynolds, F O Schwatka and J O Wright.

The Washington correspondent of the Salem Statesman says that Leroy S Dyar who has been assigned to the Klamath Agency Oregon will probably be appointed a full agent.

John Ian[illegible], a sub contractor on the O & C R R north of Oakland, took sudden leave of his friends last week, leaving behind him as a keepsake a number of unpaid bills.

The [illegible] says that it is rumored at Eugene that the Oregon and California Railroad has concluded to locate its shops at Luper's, about seven miles north of Eugene, instead of Junction City.

The members of the Aika Society, at Salem, learning that the mother of young Raymond who was buried on Sunday last, was a worthy object of charity, made up a purse of some thirty dollars and presented it to her.

The Statesman says: "When Gov Miller and the rest of the delegates from this county to the Democratic State Convention get to the Dalles and go to slashing round as if they were bed rockers we suppose the Convention will remember that they are only possums in disguise."

The West Side says in County Court proceedings of last week: "An order was entered directing the Clerk to cut off the coupons attached to the bonds given by the county to the O C R R Co for the amount of $75,000, in the year 1868 and to destroy the same in the presence of J Gaston on the part of the Railroad Company."

Mr Baggs, mail contractor on the route from Portland to San Francisco, informs the Statesman that construction trains now convey passengers and mail to a point twenty eight miles beyond Eugene City and arrangements will soon be made so that passengers can arrive in San Francisco in four days travel from Portland. Cars will probably run to Oakland about the 1st of May.

The Roseburg Ensign of last Saturday says: "The merry clang of the engine bell will soon greet the ears of Douglas county residents and the note of the locomotive whistle is the note of enterprise, and the cars are coming. Grading between here and Oakland is rapidly progressing, and according to contract is to be finished by the 1st of June. The road is completed nearly through the Pass Creek Canyon. So rapid is its progress that graders and bridge-builders are pushed to keep ahead of the track layers. Wake up, ye 'forty niners' and see what is coming."

THE TERRITORIES

Clarke county in the last ten months has paid $11,819 of her debt.

The Seattle Coal Company is turning out about $1,000 worth of coal per day.

A new mail route has been established between Port Townsend and Whidby's Island.

The school fund of Vancouver is exhausted, and the public school must be closed until next fall unless a special tax is levied.

The election of City Trustees for Port Townsend on April 1st resulted in the choice of J J Hunt, G V Calhoun and Al Pettygrove.

The Odd Fellows of Vancouver are to have a public celebration on the 26th inst, the fifty third anniversary of the Order in the United States.

Col Flint, late of the N P R R, has gone to Peru to take charge of the trans continental railroad construction under a contract with Harry Meiggs.

Capt S D Libby, late of the North Pacific, has taken command of the steamer Gol[illegible], in place of Capt Chas Nayes, who will run the S I Mastic.

Indians who should be on their reservations according to the Dispatch are prowling around Seattle. A clam eater bought one for a wife the other day for $40.

The Northwestern Stage Company have changed their line of travel from Walla Walla to Wallula so as to run by Schuebly's place, at which is Whitman Postoffice.

It is proposed to apply all the money realized from liquor licenses in Clarke county to the erection of a Court House and jail. The people will vote on the question.

The annual value of personal and real property in Olympia for the year 1871, was $776 720. The taxes amount to $5 925 40, of which sum there is yet $1 049 04 on the delinquent list.

About two weeks ago a young lad, the son of Alex Vincent, a farmer of Dungeness, W T, while out duck shooting accidentally shot himself and died in a few minutes.

Peter Callighor, a mariner, died recently at the marine hospital Port Townsend from enlargement of the heart. Deceased was about forty years of age and a native of Ireland.

The spring term of the Whitman Seminary at Walla Walla commenced on Monday last under the charge of the Rev P B Chamberlain, formerly of this city. He is assisted by Miss Louisa Simpson, late of Salem.

Salt Lake City has now a population of about 30,000 and there are scattered throughout Utah some three hundred small towns, settlements and mining districts drawing their supplies from that city. It is prophesied by those familiar with the country that in five years the population of Salt Lake will be 100,000 and that Utah will contain 500,000 people.

The [illegible] speaks thus of improvements going on at Olympia: Out of town, round about the edges and over the water, the hammer and saw are heard upon buildings in course of erection, repair or enlargement. Never were so many improvements in progress at one time. Olympia is growing loose and lumber are in demand and every thing wears a cheering aspect.

The Walla Walla Robbery

From the [illegible] we gather the following particulars of the late robbery of the County Treasury at Walla Walla.

The history of this little transaction in Walla Walla county finances as far as is yet known is about this: The money belonging to the county together with about $480 of the private funds of Mr A Kyger, County Treasurer, was kept in the safe of Mr Kyger in his store. Mr Kyger had gone home and to bed at about nine or ten o'clock and had in his pants pocket the key to his store as well as those of the safe. Before leaving the store he turned on the "combination" and locked the safe. The next morning about six o'clock the clerk in the store went to Mr Kyger's residence and told him that he had better come over to the store as his pants were already there and things did not look exactly right. Mr Kyger got up and found that his pants were gone from where he had left them, between the mattresses of the bed, and that the window of his bed room had been raised. Two black veils were also found on the porch in front of the house. On going to the store it was [illegible] that the door [illegible] the [illegible] unlocked [illegible] then the burglars had [illegible] stairs to the safe in the floor above. Here they had unlocked the safe and taken all the money and papers down to the cellar. Here they "went through" the papers and found one envelope directed to the Territorial Treasurer with the amount of its contents, some $[illegible] 000, endorsed on the back. It is needless to say that they took them. There was also a large amount of notes and [illegible] ers [illegible] the cellar. The burglars [illegible] ready cash and did not wish to [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] lighted candles in the cellar which no doubt threw much light on the condition of our county finances. On leaving they left burning these candles, and here our little story ends in the dark and nothing further has been heard from our $[illegible] 000.

One of Grover's organs says the Governor intends to take the stump shortly and give the people an account of his stewardship. It will be in order for him to explain why his twenty thousand dollar police [illegible] never manage to catch any of the [illegible] of his breakers here.

A Pea Successfully Extracted from the Ear, after having been imbedded against the Drum of the Ear for Eight Months

PORTLAND, April 8, 1872

To the Public

I hereby certify to the skill of Dr Aborn in the treatment of my son. In August last he got a large pea into his ear. Physicians were applied to without success. The pea soon caused inflammation and a fungus growth spread over the pea and filled up the entire ear, and of late a bloody discharge oozed from the ear and I became greatly alarmed about his perilous condition. After satisfying myself that Dr Aborn was a skillful surgeon in all such cases, I applied to him on Wednesday last with my son and placed him under his care. He destroyed the fungus growth so as to make a passage back to the pea, and on the fourth day he succeeded in removing all the fungus growth and disease of the ear. Then by the aid of his scientific instruments we could plainly see the pea imbedded against the drum of the ear. The pea was removed the same evening, without pain. The hearing in that ear, which was destroyed, is now by his treatment restored so that he can hear a watch tick. Only for the timely aid of the skill of Dr Aborn I feel satisfied that my son would have lost his life. It was through the card of Capt Pease that I applied to Dr Aborn, so I give this card to the public with the view that it may be the means of benefiting some one.

SEALED PROPOSALS IN TRIPLICATE ARE INvited and will be received at this office and at the office of the A C S [illegible] until 12 M Saturday, March 11, 1872, for the delivery of

at the following named Posts in the Department of the Columbia:

Camp Warner and Goose and Warner Lake Valleys, Oregon	300 tons
Camp Harney, Oregon	350
Fort Colville, W T	100
Fort Lapwai, I T	160

Bids will be received for the supply at Camp Warner, Goose and Warner Lake Valleys and Camp Harney, Oregon, same day and hour, at the office of Lt Col M D L Simpson, A C G S, Room 12, first floor, 703 Market street, San Francisco, Cal.

The Hay to be delivered at such times as may hereafter be directed by the Chief Commissary, but the [illegible] cutting [illegible] quality and kind of Hay must be stated in the bids. The Hay must be from grass cut early this season, well cured and free from sticks, stones and dirt, and must be stacked near the Post under such conditions as may be imposed by the proper authority.

Bids must state the price in U S Currency, written as well as expressed in figures. The United States reserves the right to increase or diminish the quantities named, also to reject any or all bids (bidders or their authorized agents are requested to be present at the opening of the bids). The final award will not be made until after the comparison of the bids at the different points, and no bid will be entertained unless accompanied by a deposit of 10 per cent of the money value of the article proposed to be furnished, as security that if the contract is awarded they will enter into bonds for the faithful fulfillment of the same; copies of this advertisement to accompany each triplicate bid.

Proposals for any part of the above will be considered. Envelopes must be endorsed "Proposals for Hay at —."

Further information will be given at office Chief C S Mil Div of the Pacific, San Francisco, Cal, office of the A C S of the Post concerned, and at this office.

Blank forms of Proposals can be obtained at this office. Contractors to pay for this advertisement pro rata.

COMMON LIFE PRESERVER.—Self preservation is an inherent principle in our nature and one which even the most degraded and lowest order of beings, in a savage condition, never fail to recognize. The Alaskian Indians, to provide against the contingencies of a watery grave, which their daily calling renders quite probable at any time are the inventors of a most curious kind of life preserver. Yesterday we were shown one at the shop of Mr. Dubois, on First street These Indians have displayed in the manufacture of many curious toys and rare specimens of wooden workmanship a high conception of the most intricate [illegible] arts This life-preserver is very simply yet ingeniously made A half grown seal is taken and killed and by some unknown process the flesh and bones are all taken out without breaking the skin any place The hide is dressed and a small wooden tube is inserted at one of the fin-like paws of the animal It is but the work of a moment at any time to inflate the skin by an application of the mouth to the tube When filled with air it possesses sufficient buoyancy to float a man. It can be held in the arms in such a manner so that the head and shoulders will not be [illegible] in the roughest sea

INFESTED.—Portland is now infested with a gang of petty sneak thieves who ply their vocation whenever an opportunity presents itself. Some assert that the majority of thefts committed are perpetrated by Chinamen engaged in the [illegible] business both wholesale and retail At least there are one hundred persons in the city who lounge largely around "dives" and street corners, and who have no visible means of support. How they exist, is one of the conundrums not easily solved. Those who will not work for a living are not too immaculate to do much [illegible] upon the community The blame [illegible], if it can be attached to any quarter is a [illegible] in the police regulations All who are not [illegible] in some avocation, and cannot give a [illegible] account of themselves when required, should be uniformly treated as vagrants. This process of "weeding out" would contribute more toward freeing this city from the noxious presence of men of doubtful calling, than any other which presents itself

FROM "OLD YALE."—Mr Charles E DuBois about two months ago sent to Professor O C Marsh, of Yale College, a box of fossil remains of the extinct mastodon, stuffed birds peculiar to our [illegible] waters, and a number of weapons, specimens of workmanship, and cooking utensils of the [illegible] Indians; in all, there were twenty six of these [illegible] and interesting specimens. They had been collected by several parties at Sitka, and [illegible] by Mr. DuBois. On last Monday that gentleman received a letter from Professor Marsh acknowledging the receipt of the box and its valuable contents. A draft for a handsome sum of money was enclosed in the letter The Professor expressed his gratification at receiving such a substantial accession to the cabinet of the institution, and desired Mr D to forward to him all such [illegible] and relics that he could procure.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—In the tearing down of a portion of the old wooden building near the corner of Stark and Front streets, a severe casualty transpired on yesterday morning A man named White narrowly escaped an instant death. White was engaged at the time in [illegible] some planks in the second story of the building. One of the carpenters was up on the roof [illegible] away the rafters. Suddenly one of the [illegible] slipped and fell The timber descended [illegible] and unexpectedly that White was struck on the forehead before he could get out of the way. He was knocked almost lifeless, and a severe contusion was the result. White remained [illegible] for some time, and when he had sufficiently [illegible], he was carried home A physician was called and the wound dressed The injuries are thought to be not dangerous, but are of quite a serious character

INTERNAL REVENUE ASSESSORS.—Thomas M Gale, of Roseburg, has received his Commission as Assistant Assessor of Division No. 2, vice [illegible], resigned. Owing to the reduction of [illegible] there is now only three Assistant Assessors in the District of Oregon. When the Internal Revenue Law first went into effect, in 1862 it required [illegible] Assistant Assessors to make the assessment. The following counties constitute each Division, and the name of the Assistant Assessor of each Division: Division No 1—Wasco, Umatilla, Union, Baker and Grant—Byron P Cardwell, Assistant. Division No 2—Marion, Polk, Linn, Lane, Douglas, Jackson, Josephine, Coos and Curry—Thomas M Gale, Assistant. Division No 3—Clackamas, Yamhill, [illegible], Multnomah, Columbia, Clatsop and [illegible]—A H Morgan, Assistant.

STOLEN OFF.—Two thieves on Monday night entered the premises of a lady residing on Alder street, between Sixth and Seventh, and took away about $20 worth of clothes. The same persons made an attempt to effect an entrance to Mr. Ireland's house near by, but that gentleman was on the qui vive and rapped on the window, whereat the [illegible] hastily departed These thieves were either "high-toned" or disguised, as they were [illegible] being well dressed, and having "plug hats" on their heads

STILL ANOTHER.—On Monday night the cellar of Mr. Oscar Kilbourne was entered by thieves—a ham of meat, and a coat stolen The burglars [illegible] an entrance through a door situated to the rear of the house and leading to the basement. After helping themselves to what they could find in the way of edibles and clothing they [illegible] their presence to more congenial [illegible], leaving behind a candle and a quantity of [illegible]

IN FOUR DAYS.—We are informed that the mails reach the end of the railroad track inside of four days from the time of starting from San Francisco. According to this time we receive mail matter in about four and a half days from the date of its departure The roads over which the stages pass, are reported to be in fine traveling condition considering the season of the year

STEAMER CALIFORNIA.—This propellor from [illegible], B. C., and Sound ports, reached her wharf yesterday morning about 9 o clock She had twenty-five passengers and a full freight list Included in her freight are some 200 logs which have been bored for use as water pipes by the Wooden Water Pipe Company at Tumwater, W T. They are intended to be used at Salem.

SPRAINED WRIST.—A small boy who was engaged in playing ball in the vicinity of Taylor and Fourth streets yesterday afternoon, met with a severe accident In the excitement of the game he made an attempt to cross the street, but slipped and fell, sustaining a severe sprain of the left wrist. He was taken to his home on Salmon street and medical attendance given

OREGON CONFERENCE.—The minutes of the Oregon Methodist Conference at its nineteenth session, held in this city, commencing on Aug 9th has been laid on our table It is a neat little pamphlet of eighteen pages Published by Himes & Bachelder, book and job printers

ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES.—Since January 1st, there have been arrivals and departures of ocean steamers at and from this port as follows Arrivals from San Francisco and Victoria 23 [illegible] for San Francisco and the north 21

SALE OF FURNITURE.—We call special attention to the advertisement of A B Richardson found in another column He will sell at his Auction Room, at regular sale this morning, at 10 o'clock, a large lot of choice furniture, etc

RE-DISTRICTING.—The County Court was busily engaged during its session yesterday in changing the boundaries of the precincts in the county It will probably take to the end of the term to complete and report the changes made

DELINQUENT TAX LIST.—Yesterday the County Commissioners examined and reported [illegible] upon the delinquent tax list of Sheriff James It was ordered that the list be delivered to the Sheriff for collection on Monday next

READY FOR TILLAMOOK.—The little schooner Nile Bond is now lying at the foot of Yamhill street ready to receive freight for Tillamook She has been thoroughly repaired and overhauled within the last few months

ROAD SUPERVISOR.—William Gratton was appointed Road Supervisor of District No 5 by the County Court yesterday

RATIFICATION MEETING

The colored citizens of Portland celebrated last night at Armory Hall, for the purpose of celebrating in an appropriate manner and with proper ceremonies the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States There was a sparse attendance when the exercises opened but in half an hour the hall was well filled

The audience was called to order by the Marshal for the evening W H Hunter and the President Wm Brower was introduced The President first read the Fifteenth Amendment and then proceeded to state the object of the present celebration His remarks were appropriate and [illegible] and forcibly expressed He concluded by [illegible] the Chaplain who came forward and offered prayer The old national anthem "America" was sung by a number of little girls and boys Music by the Band in succession The orator of the day, the Rev Daniel Jones was introduced by the President and delivered a brief but eloquent address Mr Jones possesses some of the desirable elements of a true orator His language is pure, chaste and free from verbiage, and his style easy and free His [illegible] are essential [illegible] however to render his delivery as forcible as it otherwise would be and that is [illegible] which is not strong nor well modulated He is, however, young in the art of public speaking, and will no doubt greatly improve in many respects with practice and experience Some of his concluding remarks were most beautifully expressed, and contained the very essence of eloquence He is an original thinker, and speaks without hesitation or from notes His touching tribute to the memory of the martyred Lincoln and our own peerless Baker, was paid in an impressive manner not lost on his audience

Following the oration, the band discoursed the national air of "Hail Columbia" The remaining portion of the exercises were of a musical character Miss Blanche Mercier sang very prettily a little comic song which so pleased the audience that it won for her a hearty encore. A piano solo (Il Trovatore) was next tastefully performed by Miss Marion Hill, which won a just meed of applause The piano duet [illegible] was played, by the Misses Corinne and Blanche Mercier Miss Hill gave the audience a vocal solo (Cuckoo) that was so neatly performed that she was compelled to appear in "Oh, would I teach the Nightingale," before they would be satisfied This young lady possesses a finely gifted voice that has attained a high degree of culture The crowning exercises of the evening was a vocal solo by Miss Octavia Mercier whose acknowledged taste and power as a vocalist needs no comment in this connection She was encored three times and fairly took the audience by storm

Doxology and the benediction closed the evening's entertainment, and the audience was dismissed

Immediately after, the seats were taken away from the hall and dancing was kept up to a late hour this morning

LOST A KNIFE.—Monday night a gentleman living on Stark street between Sixth and Seventh, was awakened by a strange noise at one of his windows "Burglars around" took instant possession of his mind, and he resolved to checkmate the accommodating gentry on the outside This determination he instantly carried into effect by springing out of bed and striking a light in the room The robbers hastily decamped On an examination of the scene of battle the next morning he found a good pocket knife on the ground below the window The blade was opened, and the thief evidently was endeavoring to insert the blade between the sill and sash when their little game was interrupted

GOING EAST.—Rev J W Miller of this State will start for the Eastern states by the Oriflamme. He goes as a delegate to the National Sunday School Convention which will meet in New York on the 17th instant, and also as a delegate to the Grand Lodge of Good Templars which will meet in Madison Wisconsin about the first of next month

BACKING UP.—The Columbia river is reported to be slowly rising This will soon begin to effect the status of our Wallamet As the past winter has been [illegible] unusual severity and much snow has fallen, high water can be anticipated this summer

FREIGHT.—The freight train of yesterday afternoon brought down [illegible] pounds hides 200 pounds merchandise, 93[illegible] pounds poultry 1 [illegible] pounds bacon, 148 boxes apples 1,[illegible]1 pounds eggs and 3 cars of flour,

Lost Little Ones

I sometimes look beyond the golden [illegible]
When sleep comes softly,
And there within the Saviour's arms enfolded
The little ones I see—
The little ones that in the glad [illegible]
Were kissed by you and me.

I see no longer in their tender faces
Upon their dimpled cheeks
No touch of care has left its tender traces,
No pain or pity speaks
They laugh and sing in happiest of places,
Through all the Sabbath weeks.

I wonder if amid their gleeful singing
Perchance they ever miss
A mother's soft arms around them clinging,
Her frequent loving kiss;
Or if they wait her coming for the bringing
Of yet a sweeter bliss.

And then, when sleep has fled, and with it dreaming,
I lie with open eyes,
And weep to find so real a thing was seeming,
In sorrowful surprise,
Till thro' the darkness there comes a gleaming,
From out the smiling skies.

And softly then a voice saith to my weeping,
"'Twas not a dream you had,
Your little ones are safe within my keeping,
So wherefore, then, be sad?"
And o'er my heart a holy joy comes creeping,
That makes me strangely glad.

PICKINGS.

A Western orator thus winds up a definition of eternity: "Why, my friends, after millions and millions of years had rolled away in eternity, it would be a hundred thousand years to breakfast time.

The spring style for the Sandwich Islanders is announced. It is a red string about the left leg just above the knee. The present fashion is a red string below the knee. By the way, we understand that the journeymen tailors in the Sandwich Islands do not strike for wages as much as once in six months.

A young man employed in the Xenia (O.) powder mills went to Springfield to spend the Sunday got drunk, overslept himself and missed the train on Monday morning. Had he kept sober and been at his work on Monday morning, his fragmentary remains might have been gathered up in a market basket after the explosion. It is not safe, however, to take this as a precedent for getting drunk on Sunday.

A Nashvillian who went to serenade her and was driven up a tree by her pa's bobtailed brindle bull-dog, has written a poem to his Julia, in which he advises her to sleep sweetly. "Aye," says he, in a sudden burst of fury:

"And if you never wake until
My soft guitar you hear,
You'll slumber till old Gabriel's horn
Shall break your sleep my dear."

An unsophisticated constituent from West Virginia lately called on his member of Congress in Washington, who, according to custom, shook him warmly by the hand and said, "Come up to the Capitol while we are in session, and I'll give you a seat on the floor of the House." "Well, no, I thank you," said the constituent, poor as I am, I always manage to have a cheer to set on at home, and I han't come to Washington to set on the floor."

PREVENTION OF SMALL POX.—A German physician is said to have lately stated the theory that the fearful disease of small pox originates from an excess of albumenous matter in the blood, and that this is to be prevented by the administration of common salt. It is further added that he holds views as follows:

The habits of children in indulging over freely in sweetmeats is one great cause of this undue development of albumen, and coffee and tea, if highly sugared, tend also to excite it in adults. An organic acid, such as lemon juice, is the best means of freeing the blood when clogged up with too much albumen, and by taking these simple remedies in the way of precaution, he has, for upwards of twelve years, frequented or taken up his abode in the most pestilential small pox hospitals of Europe and South America with entire impunity.

What Washington, knew about farming was worth knowing. In 1787 he had five hundred and eighty acres in grass; sowed six hundred bushels of oats; seven hundred acres with wheat—and as much more in corn barley, potatoes, beans, peas, &c., and one hundred and fifty with turnips. His stock consisted of one hundred and forty horses; one hundred and twelve cows; two hundred and thirty-six working oxen, heifers and steers, and five hundred sheep. He constantly employed two hundred and fifty hands, and kept twenty-four ploughs going during the whole year, when the earth and the state of the weather would permit. In 1780 he slaughtered one hundred and fifty hogs for the use of his own family, and provisions for his negroes.

HASH.—Hash is made of cast-off vittles, and has done more to advance the human race than any other kind of mixed food. For breakfast, a small tenderline stake, some ham and eggs, four baked potatoes, a plate of buttered toast, some slapjacks, a No. 1 mackerel, two cups of coffee, and some hash—is good. I worship hash this way better'n any other. I have seen hash myself that I had my doubts about, but I eat it—and still live. I love hash—from principle—and this is my rule: I watch the landlady, and if she eats it, I take "some more hash." This is what makes me so popular at all the boarding houses where I live.—Josh Billings.

The Iowa Register says: "The people of the Republican party are slow to take Greeley at what he has, unwisely and unfortunately, made himself, and this because for the man they have had so great respect and even love. But he has left them no chance to believe other than that he has allowed himself, through his ambition, to be used by the Democratic party against his own party. The New York Tribune as a Democratic document is something no old and longtime reader of it ever dreamed of seeing. But no eyes can be shut against the truth.

A Mississippi girl just out of school hired a few negroes last season and undertook to carry on the farm at her homestead. The results at the end of the year were eight banks of potatoes, 600 bushels of corn and $969 in cash from the sale of cotton after all expenses were paid.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

[illegible] EVENING, April 9, 1872.

[illegible] New York [illegible]

[illegible] buying and [illegible] selling.

Money continues unusually stringent. It is extremely difficult to obtain accommodations on any terms.

The Idaho, from San Francisco, brought up 750 tons of assorted merchandise.

The steamer California arrived this morning. She brought 187 tons of stone for the new Custom House, and 70 tons of potatoes. About 100 tons of feed were discharged at Kalama, on her way up.

We have no changes to note in prices of woolen and cotton fabrics. Prices are however very firm, indicating a further upward tendency soon. Stocks of textile goods on this coast are very large. Dealers whose orders were delayed by the snow blockade on the railroad [illegible] [illegible] them, and had the goods sent by the Isthmus. The [illegible] plethoric stocks on this coast, now that the orders have all arrived. Until these stocks are somewhat diminished prices of woolens will not correspond fully with increased prices of wool. But eventually, unless there is a great decline in wool, goods of which that article is a component part must be marked up here, and cotton goods must to some extent sympathize with the condition of the market for wool and woolens. A [illegible] will be exerted on the market for all other textile fabrics.

Facilities for storing grain at this place have long been wanted. An immense warehouse for this purpose will soon be erected on the east bank of the river just below the railroad ferry landing. This building will be six hundred feet in length by sixty in width, and will have capacity for storing a million bushels of grain. Great strength will be necessary in such a building, and it will be constructed in the most substantial manner. Vessels will lie immediately alongside the warehouse and receive cargoes, and much of the delay and expense now incurred in loading will be avoided.

A cotemporary says:

The individual who invests his money in the construction of a railroad, or in steamships to navigate the sea, or in steamboats to ply upon our rivers, is entitled to a fair return on the money thus invested, and as much as is the farmer to a reasonable profit on his year's work, or the mechanic to wages that will place him, with ordinary economy, beyond the reach of want. But when the owner of the railroad, or steamship, or steamboat, adds a single cent per pound more on rates of transportation than is equitable and just, the man that produces and the mechanic suffer to just that extent; and one cent per pound is taken from the workingman's pocket without any equivalent, and placed in the pocket of the owner of the lines of transportation to enrich him.

The individual who invests his money in a stock of sugar and coffee for the purpose of selling it, is entitled to a fair return on his investment, but when the owner of the sugar and coffee adds a single cent per pound more on the price of his goods than is equitable and just, the man who buys suffers to just that extent; the one per cent. is taken from the buyer's pocket and placed in the pocket of the owner of the goods to enrich him. But we presume none will assume the position that the Legislature can compel the owner of the sugar and coffee to sell for a certain price any more than it can compel people to buy of him.

There is more disposition in Eastern markets to purchase Wool since it has become probable that the tariff of Wool and Woolens will not be changed this session of Congress. Following were prices in Boston at latest mail dates:

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Department of the Columbia Life Association of America, held Monday night, at the office of the Company, No. 3, Dekum's building, in this city, the following named gentlemen were elected as the Board of Directors of the Department, who will have the care and management of its business: Wm. S. Ladd, J. C. Ainsworth, Henry Failing, Wm. Wadhams, D. Macleay, J. C. Flowerdew, Maj. H. M. Robert, E. Quackenbush, Eugene Semple, J. De-W. Whiting, A. S. King, G. H. Himes and H. Weinhard.

After the adjournment of the meeting of Trustees, the Board of Directors was organized by the election of the following officers: Wm. S. Ladd, President; Henry Failing, Vice President; Edw. Quackenbush, Treasurer. Dr. W. H. Watkins has been appointed medical officer, J. N. Dolph, attorney; and J. P. Dickinson, general manager of the Department.

A leading feature of this organization is that it operates on the principle of local investment and management. The funds of the Association are retained in Oregon and invested here. Such a principle, should it be carried into general operation, would check a heavy drain of money from the State.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION AT PORTLAND, MARCH 20, 1872

The Union Republican party of Oregon, in Convention, makes this declaration of its principles and policies:

1. To the Constitution of the United States and all its amendments we pledge our unfaltering allegiance; to its authority a willing obedience; to its full and legal construction and enforcement our constant support.

2. That the success of the present National Administration in reducing the public debt, diminishing and equalizing taxation, administering every branch of public affairs with economy and efficiency, forming and improving the civil service, enforcing the laws without fear or favor, protecting the nation's wards with paternal care against the cruel avarice of speculation and fraud, and maintaining friendly relations with Foreign Powers, has been such as to command the approbation of the great majority of the American people and justly entitle it to the confidence and commendation of every true Republican.

3. We regard the payment of our national debt, in full compliance with all legal obligations to all our creditors everywhere, and in accordance with the true letter and spirit of its contracting, as no longer a question in issue; but that we may be clearly understood, we denounce all forms and degrees of repudiation of that debt, as affirmed by the Democratic party and its sympathizers, as not only national calamities, but positive crimes, and we will never consent to a suspicion of lack of honor or justice in its complete satisfaction.

4. We admit of no distinctions between citizens, whether of native or foreign birth, and therefore we favor the granting of full amnesty to the people of the States lately in rebellion; and we here pledge the full and effective protection of the civil laws to all persons peaceably coming to or residing in our land.

5. We favor the encouragement of railroads by the General Government of the United States, and hold that such disposition should be made of the public lands as shall secure the same to actual settlers only, in quantities not exceeding 160 acres.

6. That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the General Government, by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such adjustment of those duties on imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interest of the whole country; and we recommend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working men liberal wages; to agriculture remunerative prices; to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the Nation commercial prosperity and independence.

7. We believe that popular education is the sole true basis and hope of a free government, and shall ever oppose any diversion of, or interference with the common school funds or lands in this State, for any other than their legitimate purpose; and we condemn the act of favoritism by the last Legislature whereby two hundred thousand dollars, taken from the school fund, were granted to a corporation consisting mainly of Democratic leaders and party favorites, for the construction of a work which another corporation, entirely sound and responsible, offered to construct for seventy five thousand dollars less, and that we are in favor of the passage by the Legislature of an efficient school law, such as shall secure to all citizens of our State a good common school education.

8. We find no terms sufficiently strong to express our disapproval of those acts of the last Legislature whereby the swamp lands belonging to the State have been taken from the hardy settlers, and given without limit or proper compensation in price to the land grabber and speculator, whereby the emoluments and salaries of State officers have been unconstitutionally increased, and the taxes increased thousands of dollars by the creation of new and unnecessary offices and salaries, for the purpose of providing for party favorites; and whereby the citizens of our metropolis have been deprived of and denied the right of controlling their police authority. And we equally condemn the administration of our State officers and laws as extravagant, reckless, illegal and destructive, and we rightfully charge all those results as the acts of the Democratic party.

9. We are in favor of the United States giving to each honorably discharged soldier who served in the armies of the United States to put down the rebellion a warrant for a homestead of 160 acres of public lands.

10. That we demand the repeal of the so called litigant act, which was devised to support pauper Democratic newspapers at the public expense.

11. That the Republican party of this State are in favor of the General Government extending aid toward building a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to Salt Lake City, and from Jackson county to Humboldt, and we hereby pledge our party representatives to the support of the same.

12. That the indiscriminate licensing of persons to sell spirituous liquors without being placed under proper responsibilities for the abuse thereof, having been found by experience to promote the growth of crime and pauperism, and thereby to seriously increase the rate of taxation, the Republican party recognize the right and duty of the law-making power to prevent and limit the evils and abuses of such sale, so far as concerns the public good and is consistent with individual liberty, by refusing to license other than law-abiding and responsible persons, who can furnish sufficient sureties for good conduct.

13. That the Republican party of Oregon is in favor of obtaining assistance from the General Government for the construction of a wagon road from the city of Portland to the Dalles, recognizing this as a most important and necessary improvement to the State.

14. We affirm that the continuance in power of the Republican party is the only sure preservation of national peace and prosperity, and for reasons therefor we point to its brilliant record in the late civil war; to a complete nationality; to a united sisterhood of thirty-seven States, to our Territories rapidly warming into State life, to a nation freed from the taint of human slavery, to an elevated and enlarged citizenship; to our national standing at home and abroad, to the work of vigorous reform in all discovered abuses of authority or trust, to an unequaled foreign credit, to a successful and sound financial system, and to the unparalleled peace and prosperity everywhere in our broad domain; and these are our pledges for the future.

15. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their conventions in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years, and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Ordinance No. 1145.

AN ORDINANCE RELATING TO THE USE OF streets for building purposes and the removal of buildings.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. No person or persons shall occupy any portion of any street or sidewalk for the deposit of building material, or for the removal of any building or buildings without first obtaining a permit therefor.

Section 2. Application for permits shall be in writing and shall specify: if for building purposes, the name of the street, the number of the lot and blocks, the size and description of the building to be constructed, or if to be repaired, the character of the repairs, the space in front of the lot or lots needed, and the proposed time for completing the work. For the removal of a building or buildings, the application shall state the number of the lot and blocks upon which the same is situated, the size of the building, the number of the lot and block to which it is proposed to remove the same, the route to be taken and the length of time required for such removal.

Section 3. Permits shall be issued by the Street Commissioner [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] upon the approval of [illegible] [illegible] Committee on Streets and Public Property. A record thereof shall be kept by the Street Commissioner setting forth, in a concise manner, the date, description of property and the objects for which the permit was granted. No permit shall be issued for a longer period than thirty days. The subject matter of such permit shall be under the supervision of the Street Commissioner.

Section 4. The Committee on Streets and Public Property shall endorse upon applications for permits for building purposes, the width of that portion of the street to be used (which shall in no case exceed one-half the width of the street) and the date upon which the permit shall expire. They may at any time during the progress of the work, require the space occupied to be suitably enclosed and a temporary walk laid around the same, lighted lanterns conspicuously placed on the premises during the night, and such other precautions taken to prevent accidents, as they may deem expedient. Upon applications for permits for the removal of buildings, the Committee shall endorse the mode and route for such removal and the date upon which the permit will expire, together with such restrictions as the public interests may require. The Committee may, at their discretion require applicants for permits to give security by deposit, or otherwise, for any damages that may accrue by carelessness or failure to comply with the provisions of this ordinance. No permit shall be granted for the removal of a building within what are known as "Fire Limits," except as provided by Ordinance No. 1,140 entitled "An Ordinance to provide for the prevention of fires and the protection of property endangered thereby."

Section 5. The removal of a building or buildings under a permit, when commenced shall be continuous during all the hours of the day, and day by day until completed, with the least possible interruption to the thoroughfares occupied. No building shall be allowed to remain over night upon any street crossing or intersection or so near thereto as to prevent easy access to any Fire Hydrant or Cistern. A lighted lantern shall be kept in a conspicuous place at each end of such building during the hours in which the street lamps are lighted.

Section 6. Upon the expiration of the time named in the permit, or sooner if the use of the street is no longer necessary, the street shall be cleared of all obstructions and placed in as good repair as it was before the permit was granted.

Section 7. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before the Police Court, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and each day of maintaining or continuing such violation shall be deemed a separate offense and punished accordingly.

Section 8. Section six (6) of Ordinance No. 1122, entitled "An ordinance to prevent and remove obstructions of streets and sidewalks," is hereby repealed.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE!

NEW REMEDIES, NEW [illegible]

Dr. Gibbon's Disp[illegible]

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs [illegible] fully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of [illegible] has returned from visiting the principal [illegible] Europe, and has resumed practice at his [illegible] Kearny street, corner of Commercial, [illegible] where his old patients and those requiring [illegible] may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor [illegible] ing out new remedies, and has retai[illegible] facilities for the alleviation of human [illegible]

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering at [illegible] once from the effects of secret indulgences, absorbed into the system! Look at their [illegible] ted and disfigured faces and their [illegible] tions, disqualifying them for the [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this [illegible] mands suffer until death closes the scene. [illegible] guardians, friends, attend to those [illegible] any of these horrible diseases [illegible] they are cured for and cured before [illegible] them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, [illegible] made private diseases his especial study [illegible] is certain to cure the most inveterate cases [illegible] cury or any injurious drugs. It is [illegible] who are afflicted, or to those who are [illegible] welfare of their friends, to be careful [illegible] tended doctors who infest all cities, [illegible] In curing all diseases in a few days, [illegible] public by using the names of eminent [illegible] Europe and other places. Be therefore strictly inquiry, or you may fall into the [illegible] charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty, the [illegible] of morbid symptoms, unless combated [illegible] ical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, [illegible] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in [illegible] the rustling of leaves and rattling of [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, [illegible] proaching strangers, a dislike to form [illegible] disposition to shun society, loss of [illegible] flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the [illegible] furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, [illegible] sweats, monomania and frequently [illegible] not obtained, should apply immediately, [illegible] or by letter, and have a cure effected by his [illegible] entific mode of treating this disease, which [illegible] effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. [illegible] Hundred Dollars to any person who will [illegible] cily to him that he was cured [illegible] of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED [illegible]

Or those who contemplate marriage, who [illegible] under any of these fearful maladies [illegible] sacred responsibility resting upon them [illegible] obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and [illegible] patients a written instrument, binding [illegible] radical and permanent cure, or make [illegible]

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating [illegible] toms, length of time the disease has continued, [illegible] medicines promptly forwarded, free from [illegible] curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars [illegible] letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible] who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary, cure of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and [illegible] lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office [illegible] etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the [illegible] for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid [illegible] to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising phy[illegible] cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in [illegible] any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat disease that he proposes to cure.
